

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

Commission for Arts and Culture

Public Art Committee

2010

Victoria Reed is an author and critic who has been writing about the visual arts, with an emphasis on the continually changing nature of contemporary art, for over thirty years. Formerly a staff art critic for Arizona Living Magazine and Scottsdale Daily Progress, she has worked as a freelance art critic for various publications including The San Diego Tribune, Artweek and the Los Angeles Times. In 1999, Dr. Reed was appointed to the Commission's Public Art Committee and served on numerous artist selection panels, as well as participated in the development and publication of the Commission's Public Art Program Assessment Report (2001) and the Public Art Master Plan (2004). Appointed to the Commission in 2006, Dr. Reed currently serves as the Chair of the Public Art Committee. As a Commissioner, Dr. Reed helped guide the development of a collections management mission and scope for the City of San Diego. She is a member of the North Embarcadero Visionary Plan Public Art Committee, the Centre City Development Corporation's Lighting Advisory Committee, and was a member of the Port of San Diego's Signature Art Advisory Committee. Dr. Reed most recently served on the artist selection panels for San Diego's North Embarcadero Redevelopment Phase 1, the Serra Mesa-Kearny Mesa Branch Library Children's Educational Space and City Heights Square Park. Dr. Reed received a Ph.D. in Art History from UCLA where she focused on the critical reception of the work of artist Eva Hesse and a M.A. in Art History from Arizona State University. Married since 1986, she is the mother of three teenagers.

Randy Robbins is a principal architect at AVRP Studios, a San Diego based architectural firm. Mr. Robbins has over thirty years of experience in architecture and interior design and has won numerous design awards. He is current Treasurer and past President of the board of Installation Gallery, the sponsor of inSITE, a bi-national program dedicated to commissioning new work by artists from the Americas in public places for the San Diego/Tijuana region. Mr. Robbins has also served as a director on the San Diego Architectural Foundation board and is currently serving as a director on the ACE Mentor Program board. Mr. Robbins was appointed to the City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture in 2002. He served as Chair of the Commission's Public Art Committee from 2005-2007 and currently serves as the same committee's Vice Chair. He also serves as Chair of the C Street Master Plan Public Art Advisory Committee and as a member of the North Embarcadero Visionary Plan Public Art Committee.

Roman de Salvo is an artist who has shown extensively in solo and group exhibitions throughout the United States. Group exhibitions include American Idyll, organized by Public Art Fund, New York; Baja to Vancouver: The West Coast In Contemporary Art, organized by the Seattle Art Museum; 2002 California Biennial, organized by the Orange County Museum of Art; Lateral Thinking: Art of the 1990's, at the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego; the 2000 Biennial Exhibition at New York's Whitney Museum of American Art; inSITE 2000 in San Diego; and inSITE 94, San Diego. He has also received numerous local public and private commissions. Projects include Utility Filigree at the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego, Nexus Eucalyptus for the California Department of Transportation in San Diego, Alvarado Riddle for the Metropolitan Transportation Development Board, and Crab Carillon for the City of San Diego. Mr. de Salvo received an M.F.A. from the University of California, San Diego and a B.F.A. from California College of Arts and Crafts, Oakland. Mr. de Salvo was appointed by the Commission in 2009 to represent the City of San Diego as a member of the North Embarcadero Visionary Plan Public Art Committee.

Vernon Franck is a Professional Land Surveyor and owns Metropolitan Mapping, a land surveying and mapping practice that focuses on select building and rehabilitation projects that enhance the core metropolitan communities of San Diego. He is past Board President of Sushi Performance and Visual Art, has served on the Greater North Park Community Planning Committee and was Chairman of their Urban Design/Project Review Subcommittee. He has served on advisory panels for the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego's TNT event, the AIA's Orchids and Onions awards and the Barrio Logan/East Village Arts District. He served on the public art selection panel for the Bayside Fire Station project. Mr. Franck received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Geography from San Diego State University and continued at SDSU as a graduate student in Urban Geography, City Planning and Environmental Design.

Mathieu Gregoire is an artist who works in large scale public projects. He is also the Project Director for the Stuart Collection at the University of California, San Diego, a lecturer at UCSD, and is the Art Projects and Acquisitions Consultant for the University of California San Francisco's Mission Bay campus. He was formerly an Assistant Professor in the Art Department at the University of Nevada Las Vegas. His sculptures have been acquired by the Lannen Foundation, the Oakland Museum and the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego. Permanent works include Blue Granite Shift at the California Center for the Arts, Escondido; River Shift at Waterfront Park, Portland, Oregon; and Equipment Field at the Mile High Stadium, Denver, Colorado. He has received grants from the National Endowment for the Arts (1997, 1990, and 1988) and an award from the Louis Comfort Tiffany Foundation. Mr. Gregoire has a B.A. in Art from Portland State University.

Joanne Hayakawa has been a Professor of Art at San Diego State University since 1982. Ms. Hayakawa has more than 33 years experience teaching, lecturing and exhibiting at galleries, universities, museums, art centers, and diverse art venues throughout the country and internationally. Her work has been featured in solo exhibitions at the William D. Cannon Art Gallery in Carlsbad, California; Quint Contemporary Art in La Jolla, California; Wita Gardner Gallery in San Diego, California; University of Southern California; University of California San Diego; University of Tennessee; and the University of Delaware. Her work has been featured in books, numerous local and national catalogs, and periodicals. Ms. Hayakawa's work has been collected privately and by public agencies including the City of San Diego. Ms. Hayakawa frequently lectures on her own work and public art in San Diego, the United States, and was recently a lecturer at the State Institute of Ceramics in Faenza, Italy. Ms. Hayakawa received a BA degree in art from the University of California Santa Barbara and a MFA degree from the University of Washington.

Constance White is the Art Program Manager for the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority. Prior to moving to San Diego in 2007, Ms. White served as the City of Dallas Public Art Program Coordinator for nine years and was the Event Coordinator for Tulisoma: South Dallas Book Fair. Ms. White has moderated numerous Congressional Art Competitions in the state of Texas and has participated as a panel member for several arts organizations nationally. She received a B.F.A. in Art History from Southern Methodist University.

Joseph O. Wong, FAIA received his Bachelor of Arts degree with honors and his Master of Architecture degree from UC Berkeley. Mr. Wong has also received his graduate Master of Landscape Architecture degree from Harvard University. Mr. Wong established Joseph Wong Design Associates (JWDA) in 1977 in San Diego and a sister office in Shanghai, China. Since that time, JWDA's practice has encompassed major public civic buildings, hotels, resorts, educational, institutional facilities, residential, and commercial mixed use projects in the United States and Asia. JWDA has received numerous design awards including national and local AIA Honor Awards, California Construction Magazine's Best Overall Project Awards, and National Design/Build Institute Design Awards. Mr. Wong is Fellow of American Institute of Architects. He has served as Board Member for the Centre City Development Corporation (CCDC), San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce, Asian Business Association, and San Diego World Trade Center's Asia Desk.

Tina Yapelli is a Professor of Art and is the Director of the University Art Gallery at San Diego State University. Since joining the faculty at SDSU in 1985, Ms. Yapelli has organized over sixty exhibitions, written numerous catalogue essays, and has lectured at other arts institutions. Ms. Yapelli served on the steering committee for the City of San Diego's Commission for Arts and Culture Public Art Master Plan and has been an artist selection panelist for several of the City's sites. She has also served as a selection panelist for public art projects in Huntington Beach, California and was an Advisory Committee Member for the Percent for Art Program of the Wisconsin Arts Board in Madison, Wisconsin. Ms. Yapelli has a M.A. in exhibition design and a Certificate of Museum Studies from California State University, Fullerton and received her B.A., Summa Cum Laude, from Loyola Marymount University, Los Angeles.